Palo Alto, CA (PRWEB) September 04, 2013 -- MetaMoJi's Note Anytime, was named the winner of a Silver Stevie® Award at the 10th Annual International Business Awards. The prestigious International Business Awards are judged each year by leading figures in business worldwide. Past judges include Donald Trump, Tony Robbins, and Gary Hamel, who participated in an evaluation process of nominees that takes approximately three months. Their recommendations for winners in more than 70 corporate and individual award categories are announced and celebrated annually. Stevie Award winners were selected by more than 250 executives worldwide who participated in the judging process this year. MetaMoJi's Note Anytime will be presented with the Silver Stevie Award at a gala awards banquet in Barcelona, Spain on 14 October.

“The 2013 International Business Awards are noteworthy for featuring the best collection of entries we have ever received,” said Michael Gallagher, president and founder of the Stevie Awards. “The judges have been unanimous in their comments about the quality of achievements, and the expertise with which they were portrayed, in the nominations we received this year. We extend our most heartfelt congratulations to all of this year's Gold, Silver and Bronze Stevie Award winners.”

Note Anytime is a productivity app free for download in 13 languages. More than a simple note taking app, Note Anytime is a productivity platform which turns tablets and smartphones into useful computer devices. The elegant interface and simple design mask the vast and expansive features of the app: PDF annotation, in-app web browsing, vector graphic authoring and 50x zoom capability. Use Note Anytime to mark up contracts and critical business documents, take quick notes or calendar lists, make sketches around photos and graphics and share them on social media or email.

“Winning the Silver Stevie Award for Note Anytime at this year's International Business Awards is a great honor. We are grateful to the international business community for recognizing Note Anytime among other distinguished colleagues in the industry. We are very pleased that Note Anytime has become the #1 app in many countries already,” said Kazunori Ukigawa, founder and CEO of MetaMoJi.

Note Anytime is often referred to a Swiss Army knife of note takers, meaning powerful tools are available when needed, but they are not in the way of capturing inspiration. Premium features include one of the most sophisticated handwriting recognition plugins on the market, natively authored in 13 different languages. The handwriting feature not only converts hand writing to text on the fly, but also allows users to convert an entire document as a batch later within Note Anytime.

Note Anytime was created to replace pen and paper with a vastly superior means to capture inspiration. Devices are with you anywhere you go and with Note Anytime, inspiration can be captured on the fly – regardless of device. Free download is available now.
